

The Daily Gazetteer.

NUMB. 1447

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8. 1740.

N^o. 1445.

To the Printer of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

At all Times Publick Economy is commendable; but at none more so, than when the Publick is engaged in great and unavoidable Expence; to which, as all Men contribute, all Men ought to have an equal Regard. The Expence of the present War is so inseparable from the Honour of our Country, as far as I am capable of Judging, that I am willing even to abridge my Divisions to enable me the better to bear the Addition upon the Land-Tax: And this new Turn of Frugality has put me upon considering, whether we do not pay more for Pleasure in general, than is strictly necessary: And, as the THEATRE employs the most of my Attention, that has fallen first under my Consideration on this Occasion.

There was a Time when the best Plays belonging to the Stage, were perform'd by the best Actors ever plac'd in a Theatre: The Price of an Evening's Entertainment was then Half a Crown. We have now, indeed, some Men, and two or three Women, who are not without Merit in their Profession: But then, in a whole Season can we see them perform for less than Three Shillings.

I am sensible that this Additional Expence stole upon us with the first Appearance of our English Pantomimes, with a View of paying the Managers of our Theatres for their extraordinary Charge in Scenes, &c. But tho' none of these have failed, more by Cause than Merit, of having a First-Run sufficient for the Charge attending them, yet whenever these all appear, which we purchased long ago, we are always compelled to pay Sixpence for the Sight: Nay, what is yet far more strange, even a common little Farce, which our Grandfathers had profited for their Favour, we have lately been made to pay for; and The Mock-Doctor, The Miller, Virgin Unmask'd, &c. have robb'd me of as many Sixpences as Dionysius, The Royal Chase, or Fall of Phaeton.

If it should be urged, that the Number of Persons kept for these Farces add a large Expence to the Theatre, it is easily reply'd, that those Pieces, beside the Pleasure they give most Spectators, particularly those of a less polite Taste, are useful to a Play-house, by affording an Opportunity for the Trial and Improvement of the younger Actors, who are not qualified at first to appear in our Comedies.

There is also some Room for complaining of what we, for what Reason I cannot guess, called Entertainments, on account of the Time lost upon them, when every body ought to be at Supper. From Nine till Half an Hour after Ten, the common Space for these Representations, is much fitter for drinking a Glass, than sitting in a Theatre: And among the Numbers who stay, near one Half are kept as much on account of the Difficulty of getting out, as for the sake of what they see: Most, especially the Ladies, being enough fatigu'd by a Three-Hours Attention, without a long Hour and Half, or sometimes two Hours afterwards, beside being oblig'd to pay for, what they would rather pay to be without.

But there is another Occasion of raising the Price of our Seats, yet far less to be vindicated than any of the former. The Presence of a Sovereign, or any of the Royal Family was always look'd upon as an Honour to a Theatre, and an Audience never fails to express a Satisfaction and Pleasure at so great a Condescension. The Managers were also Gainers by the Favour, by never failing of crowded Audiences: And this used to be thought sufficient. But of late, the Favour of the Royal Family has been made an Occasion of putting every Spectator to extraordinary Expence; and three Shillings is extorted for a single Play, under no other Pretence, but our having the Honour of the Royal Presence: I will not say how derogatory this is from the Honour of those Personages, who leave the World to judge, whether it is reasonable our Seats should be raised solely on THAT Account.

I am, SIR, Your most humble Servant,

TOM AIRY.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S
BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-Street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i.e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoides or Menses; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shoar, at Home or Abroad, i.e. in all Climates therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N.B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptick from a Prescription of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of Dr. Eaton's; but whoever tries both, will soon be persuaded that Our's exceeds their's in all Respects, in a most eminent Degree.

Which in a few Days infallibly cure

HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual: and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimic, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, sour Belchings, Cholick, Uneasiness in the Bowels, and ill Fumes, which offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, perturbation Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with dire ul Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so-much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and cheerful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, near Stocks-Market, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions.

It instantly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth extremely white and delicately beautiful, infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd from becoming worse; absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, be it ever so inveterate, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth again, when almost eaten quite away, and affluently fastens loose Teeth to Admiration.
